

Youth Safety Run to Record 250,000-Mile Mark in June

Primarily, it's a test of economical new-car performance and expert driving ability, but the Youth Safety Run, conducted by the Police Advisory Council for Car Clubs could not have been more accurately named.

In six runs to date, more than 210,000 miles have been logged without a single traffic accident or traffic violation by any of the young competitors.

"If the seventh annual run (slated June 27-29, from Azusa to Sacramento and return) continues the record, we'll pass the quarter-million mark," said Officer A. L. Jackson, Torrance police sponsor for the PACCC.

"Naturally, we are proud of the record. It would be hard to beat in any league. However," said Jackson, "all competing car clubs stress in their programs courtesy on the road, safe-driving practices, community service, and planned activities."

The 108 young men, who will be in 36 new cars, will meet these basic requirements:

Be a member in good standing of a police-recognized car club; drivers and co-drivers must be 16 to 21 years of age and observers over 16; none may have received more than one moving citation during six months prior to the run.

The 1960 event will be the first with northern terminus at Sacramento. The first four years it was Las Vegas, with starts and finishes at Lynwood, 1954; South Gate, 1955; Maywood, 1956; and Pasadena, 1957.

The 1958 and 1959 runs started from Pomona and Torrance, with Yosemite National Park as northern destination.

Plus the car dealers, service clubs, civic groups, and the Macmillan Petroleum Corp., are sponsors of the 1960 run.

Through Brig. Gen. Norman L. Callish, commander, Mather Air Force Base will be host for two nights to the young competitors and police officers supervising the run.

SAFETY RECORD—Drivers on Youth Safety Run hope to keep up record on this year's Trip June 27-29. Dennis Berry of Tyrants car club and co-driver, Jim Masaki of Cardinals, are shown before entry. Officer Jackson is route chairman.

Home Savings-Loan Association Will Open Four Offices This Month

Home Savings and Loan Association unveils four new office buildings this month in Los Angeles and Orange counties, reported, President Kenneth D. Childs. The openings will be held June 27.

In Los Angeles County, Home Savings will open buildings at 60 E. Huntington Dr., Arcadia, and at 4909 Lakewood Blvd., Lakewood.

Orange County will see Home Savings opening new buildings at 11922 Brookhurst St. in Garden Grove, and at 8010 Beach Blvd. in Buena Park, opposite Knott's Berry Farm.

The new buildings, designed by noted artist-muralist, Millard Sheets, are faced with imported Italian white marble. The upper sections of the exteriors are covered with ceramic-fired gold, while the entrance-ways recessed and faced with contrasting black marble.

Architect for the buildings is S. David Underwood of Claremont.

Air-conditioned interiors of the four modern offices feature marble and walnut appointments. The floors are either carpeted or vinyl tiled, according to usage. Each office contains a broad mural on one of its walls executed by Sheets.

Construction firms employed for the buildings are: Arcadia—Rexford Construction Co.; Buena Park and Lakewood—Pozzo Construction Co.; and Garden Grove—Nixon Construction Co.

Gardena School Rites Tonight

Gardena Adult School will hold its second graduation exercise tonight at 8 in the Gardena High School auditorium.

Featured speaker will be Dr. Wendell L. Black, president of Los Angeles Harbor College.

Clayton Dills, 67th District Assemblyman, will present the diplomas. Mayor Robert Kane will bring greetings and congratulations from the city.

LANDSCAPING—Jack Hurley of San Pedro, Mrs. Charles Sell and Mrs. Joe Sakamoto of Torrance, and Mrs. Hurley help spruce up Osteopathic Hospital on landscaping day.

New Librarian Appointed for City Branches

Betty Lee Addison has been appointed librarian for the Torrance libraries.

She will headquarter at the main library, 1345 Post Ave., and be available for interviews after June 6.

Miss Addison earned her master's degree from the USC Library School.

She was a librarian for five years with the federal government. Most of this time was at army headquarters in Germany.

Prior to coming to Torrance, Miss Addison worked as a librarian for the Los Angeles library system in San Fernando.

Osteopathic Hospital Will Be Dedicated in Harbor City

Open house will feature brief dedication ceremonies at the new $1,200,000, 50-bed Bay Harbor Osteopathic Hospital Sunday, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Doctors, hospital employees, and auxiliary organizations will conduct visitors through the new institution at 1437 Lomita Blvd., Harbor City.

Special guests of honor invited to the dedication include Assemblyman Vincent Thomas, honorary fund-drive chairman; Los Angeles City Council President John Gibson; Supervisor Burton Chace; Dr. Dorothy Marsh of Glendale, president of the California Osteopathic Association; Dr. W. B. Henley, president of the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons; Dr. Maxwell Brothers, medical director of the Los Angeles County Osteopathic Hospital; J. Frank Holt, chairman of the board of trustees of the Osteopathic College; and Dr. Ralph Simonian, chief of staff at Long Beach Osteopathic Hospital.

First patients are expected to be admitted June 15, according to Frank Kredel, administrator.

Last-minute touches are being made to the hospital this week as final shipments of equipment and supplies are received.

More than 200 doctors, patients, and members of the Bay Harbor Osteopathic Auxiliary and the Bay Harbor Osteopathic Hospital Guild turned out over the past week end for a landscaping-day program.

More than 500 trees and shrubs were planted along with flowers, lawns, and border designs under supervision of Joe and Ruth Sakamoto of 438 W. Carson St., Torrance, who landscaped the grounds.

The sprinkling system for the project was installed by E. Roberts of 3348 W. 135th St., Hawthorne.

Members of the San Pedro Izaak Walton League chapter turned out en masse to assist hospital backers meet Los Angeles City requirements in landscaping the property before the hospital is opened.
